Coalition For A Safe Environment

Community Services

- Community organizing, education, empowerment, leadership development, public information distribution and public interests representation.

- Public health research, public health care, conduct public health surveys, family counseling and community based science research.

- Public and student safety research, public safety awareness education, safe school to routes programs and community emergency preparedness.

- Public law, policy, rules, regulations, programs, projects, events and CEQA/NEPA environmental impact reports, review, analysis and public comment.

- Investigation, documentation, research, analysis and report preparation of environmental incidents.

- Attend and participate in governmental agency meetings, public hearing, events, workshops, seminars, presentations, planning sessions and webinars.

- Community liaison and public interests representative to governmental agencies, elected officials, commissions, boards, taskforces, committees and industries.

- Air Quality & Weather monitoring, testing, data collection and analysis.

- GPS data collection, GIS map making, data analysis and report preparation.

- Photography, videography, drone surveillance, editing, printing and publishing. CD, DVD, USB production and duplication.

- Flyer, poster, sign, banner, document design, illustration, editing, printing and publishing.   CD, DVD, USB production and duplication.

- Conducts extensive research, documentation and public information preparation on alternative technologies, new emerging technologies, zero emission technologies, near zero emission technologies and best available control technologies.

- Conducts research, documentation and public information preparation on renewable energy, waste management, recycling and efficiency technologies.

- Research, prepare and submit public interest petitions, appeals, requests, affidavits and declarations as deemed necessary.

- Research, prepare and file public interest lawsuits and amicus briefs as deemed necessary.